

Midlothian Country Club

5000 West 147th Street, Midlothian, IL 60445
Telephone 708-388-0596 Fax 708-388-7013

Job Posting: Club Manager – Midlothian Country Club

Reports to: Board of Directors

Position Summary:

Midlothian Country club is seeking a dynamic leader to manage business operations including food and beverage, membership development, marketing and all membership relations.

Club Description:

Founded in 1898 Midlothian Country Club is one of the Chicago area's most celebrated private golf and country clubs with unparalleled family culture, history and tradition. Originally designed by well-known course architect Herbert J. Tweedie, Midlothian was the first privately owned club established South of Chicago. Donald Ross renovated the course in preparation for the 1914 US Open and Midlothian later hosted two Western Opens and numerous other events. Today the club features the same championship golf course in addition to luxurious meeting, banquet and dining facilities. Midlothian offers a family friendly environment to support golf and recreation for all members.

Club Manager Objectives

The main objectives of the Club manager is to lead the existing staff to create a culture of superior service for all members, family members and guests. The manager will also work with the board to develop an atmosphere and unique events that promote membership activity.

Desired Skills

The candidate must have experience in the private club industry, including strong management skills, along with the following key skills.

- Dynamic personality with the ability to evaluate and rethink established club processes and activities
- Strong management, interpersonal and leadership skills
 - Will need the ability to work with an established staff while also developing new ideas and processes.
- Social media skills to develop a robust social media presence
- Country Club experienced focused on service and membership experience.
- Hands on worker who is a visible, roll up the sleeves, worker that will interact with members, guests and staff
- Idea orientation to help develop new ideas and the ability to drive those ideas forward.
- Financial and business knowledge to assure the financial success of the recent past years is carried forward

Interested candidates should send resumes to – mbarry@tnresources.com